A quick read on the news of the day

Black Coaches Change lands BYU vs. Tulane

After a few weeks of false starts, the Black Coaches Association Classic football game has a matchup.

Brigham Young, with coach Gary Crowton making his debut, will host Tulane on Aug. 25. Southern California and Kansas also had been mentioned as hosts.

Until late Monday afternoon, Kansas State thought it would host Southern Methodist, only to have the BCA and its marketing arm, the Gazelle Group of Princeton, N.J., nix it. Tulane and BYU have met once, in the 1998 Liberty Bowl when the Green Wave capped a 12-0 season with a 41-27 victory.

Other preseason games this year: New Mexico State at Louisville in the Aug. 23 Humanitarian Classic; North Carolina at defending champion Oklahoma in the Hispanica Fund Classic; Texas Christian at Nebraska in the Pigskin Classic and Virginia at Wisconsin in the Badger Classic, all on Aug. 25; and Georgia Tech vs. Syracuse in the Kickoff Classic Sunday, Aug. 26 in the Georgia Dome and Stanford at Colorado in the Jim Thorpe Classic on Aug. 26.

Penn State's first game is expanded Beaver Stadium, Sept. 1 vs. Miami (Fla.), will be on prime-time TV. ABC will carry the game at 8 p.m. ET split nationally with Wisconsin at Oregon. A $93 million addition of 12,000 seats makes Beaver Stadium's 106,500 capacity second to Michigan Stadium's 107,501. . . . The Minnesota-Toledo game scheduled for Friday, Aug. 31 in Toledo, Ohio, is moving to Aug. 30 to avoid conflicts with high school football opening night in both states. ESPN2 was to carry the game but likely won't with the change.

Georgia Tech men's basketball coach Paul Hewitt has a new 5-year contract. The $500,000 deal, which renews itself each year, took effect April 1, the school said Tuesday.

In his first season, Hewitt, 36, took the Yellowjackets (17-13) to the NCAA tournament for the first time in five seasons.

IRL to replace CART at Mich., Pa. tracks

The Indy Racing League is expected to stage events at Michigan International Speedway and Nazareth (Pa.) International Speedway to replace CART events that won't be run next year. The IRL plans to announce its 2002 schedule next week that includes the entire Michigan schedule and the Indy 200 in Nazareth. CART, which is racing in Europe this year for the first time, is dropping both tracks to add events next year at Monterrey and Denver. IRL vice president Bob Bell told The Indianapolis Star that "Quite a bit would have to happen in the next 6 days for that not to be the case."

LPGA event gets a major break

The Nabisco Championship, the first major of the LPGA season, finally gets dates next year that won't go head-to-head from Thursday to Sunday. The LPGA Tour event will be a week earlier, March 21-24. That leaves the Nabisco opposite the PGA Tour's Houston Open. One problem: ABC televisions both. LPGA commissioner Ty Votaw says he's working with ABC and the PGA Tour to let the Houston Open end at 5 p.m. ET, which will leave 90 minutes for the Nabisco's final round.

Indiana man plays 504 holes in 16 hours

Chris Crabtree proved to be quite a golf fanatic by playing 504 holes in 16 hours. The 18-hole rounds — in one day. "I can't imagine having more fun," he said after Monday's 16-hour, 18-minute marathon in Elkhart, Ind. The golf pro helped raise $15,000 for a women's shelter. His goal was 500 holes. About 200 fans, including golf buddies, greeted him as he finished at 9:18 p.m. Crabtree, 38, pro at Christiana Creek Country Club, averaged 34.9 minutes a round. He hit 2,087 shots, for an average score of just over 74.

Romanowski trial on drug charge begins

A jury was seated Tuesday after a Douglas County district judge in Castle Rock, Colo., refused to dismiss charges that Denver Broncos linebacker Bill Romanowski illegally used a diet drug prescribed for someone else. Romanowski, 35, is accused of obtaining the appetite suppressant phentermine, which had been prescribed for his wife, Julie, and a family friend.

Dominican boxer commits suicide in USA

Gabriel Hernandez, 27, a Dominican who fought for the super middleweight title 2 years ago, hanged himself Sunday in Yonkers, N.Y. The martial arts expert left no note, the contents not revealed. Hernandez, formerly a member of the Dominican American Games, fought in Virginia a week ago, scoring a first-round knockout.
